Team Members at Margaritaville Lake Resort Lake Conroe | Houston Receive Certification from Maharani Weddings

Montgomery, Texas (May 1, 2024) – Margaritaville Lake Resort Lake Conroe | Houston is proud to announce that two of its catering sales managers, Alex Trego, and Caitlin Bracewell, have recently received certification from Maharani, an esteemed authority in South Asian weddings. The certification further enhances the resort’s ability to handle the unique requirements of South Asian weddings.

To obtain their certification, Trego and Bracewell took a three-hour course covering education on cultural events and traditions specific to different regions within India, emphasizing the differences and nuances crucial for successful event planning.

“Our Maharani wedding certification, combined with the wide array of venues, amenities, and activities, allow us to create an unforgettable wedding weekend experience for the bride, groom, family members, and all of their guests,” said Desiree Tapping, director of catering for Margaritaville Lake Resort.

Located about an hour north of Houston, Margaritaville Lake Resort is a lush, tropical oasis on a secluded lakefront, the perfect setting for the time-honored traditions of South Asian weddings. With over 72,000 square feet of event space, the resort can host every wedding festivity– including a welcome dinner, the Mehendi, and Sangeet, as well as separate Vidhi ceremonies for the bride and groom all onsite. In addition, the resort features a private, .75-mile road leading up to the resort entrance, which means there is no need to seek a permit from the city to bring in a horse or elephant for a Baraat. As a lakeside resort, Margaritaville Lake Resort also offers couples the option of having a Baraat come in on a boat.

Margaritaville Lake Resort has launched its “Pick Your Paradise” offer to celebrate its recent achievement and showcase its enhanced capabilities. Now, for a limited time, couples who decide to book their wedding by Dec. 31, 2024, can pick from various complimentary event enhancements designed to transport them to marital bliss.
